Bush Tucker Garden Interpretive Signage

For Early Learning Centres and Schools

Welcome sign

- Welcome visitors to your Bush Food Garden with our locally designed and produced sign.
- Gorgeous hand drawn botanical art by a Melbourne artist.
- Plants featured are Native Violets (edible flowers), Apple-berry (edible fruits) and Old Man Saltbush (edible leaves).
- The sign text reads 'This garden grows Edible and useful plants used by the first peoples of Australia for food, tools, medicine and shelter'
- Available in long-lasting metal or economical corflute.

Interpretive Plant ID signs

- Our own range of colourful and informative signs.
- The large photo and specially designed icons make the signs accessible for children and the culturally and linguistically diverse.
- Cultivation and plant use notes.
- Designed and manufactured in Australia.
- Available in long-lasting metal or economical corflute.
- 37 different edible and useful bush tucker plants.
- Symbols Legend sign assists learning.
- New plants to be added to the range in 2021.

Prices start at $33 (inc. GST).

For more information or a school/ organisation order form, visit the Edible Eden Design website:
edibleeden.com.au

edible eden design

PROUDLY SUPPORTING Indigenous Literacy Foundation

For every sign sold we donate a portion to the Indigenous Literacy Foundation, so your money reaches further than your own school or group.